

November 2022

Dear Friends,

Thank you for lifting up the youth at Indiana United Methodist Children's Home in prayer. The Bible tells us about the power of prayer. Philippians 4:6 says, "Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus."

For privacy reasons, we have changed the names in each prayer...but God knows exactly who they are and what they need!

Dear God: In this season of Thanksgiving, we are thankful for family and friends. Some of our youth will be spending time with loved ones on Thanksgiving while others will celebrate Thanksgiving at the Children's Home. Please keep our youth safe as they travel to their home communities during Thanksgiving. We pray for their families as they gather together during this special time. We also pray for our youth that remain on campus for Thanksgiving. Please let them know that they are loved and cared for. Lord, Your love is truly bountiful. Thank You for caring for our children in all seasons. In Your Name we pray, Amen.

Dear Lord: Charles, Tia and Andre graduated from our on-grounds school a few days ago. Thank You for giving them hope. Please keep watching over them as they overcome the obstacles set before them. We pray that they stay motivated and adapt to all the changes that will continue to take place. Please continue to help Charles, Tia and Andre maintain the confidence to succeed during this changing time in their young lives. In Your name we pray, Amen.

Heavenly Father: Amber is troubled and anxious. She was recently taken to a stress center to deal with severe depression. God, please instill in Amber that You will be with her during treatment and not to be frightened. Let her know that You will protect her and that she is in good hands with the doctors and therapists. In Your name we pray, Amen.

Almighty God: Katy's beloved cousin passed away last month, and she is grieving. Please help Katy understand how much she is loved and that one day, she will be reunited with her loved ones. Help her understand that her cousin has everlasting life in heaven. Surround Katy with people who will bring her comfort, peace and reassurance. In Your Name we pray, Amen.

Dear God: We celebrate with Daniel! He is excited to become a first-time uncle. His sister gave birth to a healthy baby last month. As a new uncle, Daniel realizes he needs to be a good role model for the baby. Lord, we pray for Daniel and his family as they have a new loved one in their midst. Daniel is excited to be reunited with his family and Lord, we thank You, for creating new life which always instills in us a feeling of hope and joy. In Your Name we pray, Amen.